KALAKRAI PINNACLE CLIMBING AND RAPPELLING EXPEDITION

Fort lovers visit Rajmachi Fort, located ten miles north of Lonavala, throughout the year. However, very few people visit the Dhak Forts, located in the dense forest near this same Rajmachi. Among them, the number of people who go to Bahiri Cave is more. But very few people visit Dhak Fort. The Pinnacle on the side of the Dhak Fort is called 'Kalkrai Pinnacle'. Judging by the location and structure of the fort, it must have been used for surveillance.

Nowadays, many people visit the Dhak Fort based on partial information or with the intention of adventure. They must keep one thing in mind, that is, it is dangerous to visit this fort without having mountaineering equipment and knowledge of mountaineering techniques.
